Work with privacy

Work with ease and privacy, even in high traffic office environments. Genoa's extended corner island offers users an ergonomically correct Executive suite with ample area for computers of various sizes and shapes, in addition to everyday work materials, while providing an oversized worksurface for conferencing.

the modern office

Desking finished in MAF Figured Mahogany; Supra seating upholstered in Cumulus CU81 Sepia.

Store your books and binders in freestanding bookcases or organize your project files in the spacious vertical or horizontal pigeon holes mounted to Genoa hutches (shown with optional doors).

The generous corner detail accommodates all Global keyboard drawers.

Genoa features top-over-panel construction and detailing on all components.

Creating a private space with Genoa and Divide

Desking finished in TMP Tiger Maple; Azeo and Rest seating upholstered in Oxygen OX10 Nero.

Organize and store with ease

Desking finished in AWH Avant Honey; Satinwood seating upholstered in Shard SH17 Arctic and finished in AHM Honey.

Genoa's classic bowed desk and kneespace credenza provide style and simplicity for today's contemporary office. Combined with Divide's™ modular stacking panels, an efficient workstation is created with the added benefit of individual privacy barriers. Off-desk accessories help reduce desk-top clutter by providing additional organization.

The versatility of Genoa easily aids in workstation organization with its extensive desk components and storage capabilities. Create a classic yet professional look with an attractive Genoa hutch and pigeon hole storage. Traditional credenzas can be substituted with Genoa lateral files and storage cabinets for maximum storage space.

The edge detail combines the value of laminate furniture with the contemporary styling of top-over-side panel design.

Pigeon hole storage and hutch components allow for a variety of storage options to organize and store your office materials.

TEAMING ENVIRONMENTS

Working together

Genoa's classic styling and simplicity integrate easily with any interior decor. Most components are shipped fully assembled. Thermally fused high performance laminate is durable for years. File drawers accommodate letter and legal files with standard locks on all pedestals. Extended corners, island worksurfaces and full to floor pedestals offer additional configuration options.

shared office

Storage and Filing components of every type can be grouped in countless configurations for maximum office organization.

The Genoa product line has every component from typical desks and credenzas to L-shaped desks with returns and fully featured executive U-groupings.

RECEPTION

Desking finished in AWH Avant Honey; Pivotback seating upholstered in Quantum QU28 Azure.

Create a great first impression

Create a welcoming Reception area with a Genoa desk and return complemented with Divide™ surface mounted panels.

The modular panels and transaction tops create an attractive and functional reception desk, with the added security of locking desk and return drawers.

File drawers have full extension progressive steel bearing slides for extra durability and support.

Extended corner components are available with built-in CPU holders freeing up clutter from floor.
